

Caravan Parks/Modular Building – Evolving to meet demands

BREAKFAST FORUM
Wednesday 19th March 2008

A changing demographic and the resource sector demands have seen the market for accommodation diversify to meet the needs of the many sectors including resources, tourism, housing, education, retirement, communication and commercial markets.

A range of influences including the decrease in housing affordability; the reduction in public housing; the increase in the number of number of manufactured-home villages has seen caravan parks and transportable living diversify to meet new needs.

This breakfast forum will provide a developer's perspective on the past, current and future outlook of Caravan parks within the tourism and mining sectors and a builder's perspective on the evolution of demand for transportable housing.

We are pleased to present highly regarded speakers:

- Lino Brolese—Chief Executive Officer, Aspen Parks. Aspen Parks has established a portfolio of 26 quality parks in premium locations around Australia.
- Phil Guy, Managing Director of Nomad Construction. The core business of Nomad Constructions emanates from the resources and engineering sectors.
- Steve Crawford, Executive Director of Industry Development, Tourism WA
- Panel session – Q&A

Venue: Burswood Entertainment Complex, Great Eastern Highway, BURSWOOD (Astral Room 1)

Time: Registrations commence at 7AM for 7.30AM breakfast (concluding at 9AM)
